De Novo Legal Re-Enters Legal Executive Search Market

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--De Novo Legal, a leading international attorney document review and electronic discovery provider, announced that Barry Bova has joined the company as Managing Director – Senior Level Placement and will manage the legal permanent placement division. De Novo Legal will now provide executive search for law firm senior management, partners, associates and paralegals.

Formerly a partner at Kingsbury Wax Bova, Mr. Bova is an experienced professional recruiter with over 35 years of executive search for law firms, Fortune 500 corporations and financial institutions.

“We are delighted to have Barry join our team. Barry’s strong eye for identifying the right talent for the client coupled with his strong depth of knowledge of the legal industry will be a valuable asset to De Novo Legal and our clients,” commented Rob Singer, De Novo Legal’s Chief Executive Officer.

“Barry Bova is an exemplar professional in client service and he has consistently demonstrated that over many years of service to both Rob Singer and myself,” stated Brad Scott, De Novo Legal’s President.

Mr. Bova will assume responsibility for the legal placement division and work closely with Mr. Singer, Mr. Scott and the recruiting team to provide placement services, including lateral partner acquisitions.

“I’m extremely pleased to join Rob Singer, Brad Scott and the De Novo Legal Team,” said Mr. Bova. “I have had the pleasure to know and work with them on the client-side for over two decades.”

Rob singer further commented, “I have known Barry for over 25 years and his professional nature, deep understanding of the client and of senior level talent, along with a tacit ability to make optimal placements with excellent fit set him apart from the field and will serve as a real differentiator for De Novo Legal.”
