

July 12, 2011 07:21 AM Eastern Daylight Time

WilmerHale Chief Legal Talent Officer Joins De Novo Legal as President

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--De Novo Legal, a leading international attorney document review and electronic discovery provider, announced that Brad Scott has joined the company as President.

Formerly the Chief Legal Talent Officer at WilmerHale and Executive Director at Weil and HellerEhrman, Mr. Scott is an experienced executive with over ten years of law firm human capital and business management experience. Prior to entering the legal industry over a decade ago, Mr. Scott had an internal consulting role as an executive at IBM. While at IBM, he was part of a team responsible for global executive leadership and organizational development education and training, and he directed the individual coaching of IBM's top 250 executives.

“This is an exciting time in the legal industry as clients are keenly focused on more efficient delivery of high quality services – a strength of De Novo Legal.”

Previously, Mr. Scott spent 24 years in the United States Army. As a commissioned combat arms officer, he had various leadership and staff roles, and worked in higher education at the United States Military Academy for nine years, where he served as the Director of the Center for Enhanced Performance, Director of the Human Sciences Research Laboratory, and an Associate Professor.

“We are delighted to have Brad join our team. Brad’s strong depth of knowledge of the legal industry coupled with his strong leadership and expertise in legal talent management will be a valuable asset to De Novo Legal and our clients,” commented Rob Singer, De Novo Legal’s Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Scott will assume operational responsibility for the entire company and work closely with Mr. Singer and the executive team to further enhance De Novo Legal’s attorney document review and e-discovery services and expand into new synergistic offerings including attorneys on demand and direct hire for law firm senior management and attorneys, including lateral partner acquisitions.

“I’m extremely pleased to join Rob Singer and the De Novo Legal Team,” said Mr. Scott. “This is an exciting time in the legal industry as clients are keenly focused on more efficient delivery of high quality services – a strength of De Novo Legal.”

“We are very fortunate to have such a strong team that fully understands our clients and strives to deliver “above and beyond” results every day. We are well positioned to experience further growth across the globe and continue to develop strategic partnerships with our clients. Brad Scott, President, Rob Singer, CEO, Evelyn Louie, Chief Administrative Officer and Edward Burke, Managing Director - Project Management/General Counsel all previously worked at Weil which has provided invaluable insights into client expectations and the delivery of a high quality work product,” added Mitchell Slater, founding partner of De Novo Legal.

About De Novo Legal

De Novo Legal is a premier provider of attorney document review and electronic discovery services. Since its inception in 2001, the Company has expanded to nine offices (eight throughout the nation and one in London) with 45,000 square feet of attorney document review project space and processing and hosting centers in New York, San Jose and London. De Novo Legal strives to be a strategic partner with its clients and provides high-quality, scalable and cost-efficient results for law firms and corporate legal departments. For more information please visit www.denovolegal.com.

Contacts

De Novo Legal
Evelyn Louie, 212-905-7500
evelyn.louie@denovolegal.com

